

Regulating Financial Intermediaries

22 – 23 May 2014, Bonn (Germany)

VENUE AND DATE

The meeting will be held on Thursday and Friday, 22 and 23 May 2014 at the Center for Economics and Neuroscience (CENs), Nachtigallenweg 86, 53127 Bonn. An ID badge will be distributed on 22 May at the registration desk at the meeting venue. For security reason, please wear your ID badge prominently throughout the meeting.

The Center for Economics and Neuroscience was founded in 2009 by Christian Elger, Armin Falk, Martin Reuter and Bernd Weber.

It combines knowledge and methods from neuroscience, behavioral genetics, medicine and economics to deepen our understanding of human behavior, especially in economically relevant contexts.

CENs will also provide a platform for the field of neuroeconomics within Germany and internationally with the aim of fostering interdisciplinary work.

DURATION OF THE MEETING

The meeting will begin at 8.50 am on Thursday, 22 May and is expected to end around 4 pm on Friday, 23 May.
